

My School is Closed Today

© Meredith Polsky 2020. Exclusive and restricted permission is hereby granted to print this story for use with an individual or small group in a home, educational or clinical setting. May not be altered. May not be used for financial gain. Requests for personalization or modification can be submitted at www.meredithpolsky.com. All other rights and restrictions apply.

Every morning, I wake up, have breakfast and start to get ready for school.

I love school! I get to play with my friends and teachers, sing songs and have snack.

I want to go to school today, but it is closed!

It's not snowing, and it's not time for a vacation.

But my grown-ups say we need to stay home.

My teachers want to go to school, too! They like when I give them hugs, and they hold my hand. They love seeing me at school!

We all want to go to school, so why is school closed?

The grown-ups say we have to stay home because people are getting sick. But I'm not sick. And my teachers aren't sick either!

One time last year I felt sick and I had to stay home from school for 2 days. All my friends got to play at school. I was so sad!

I'm not sick now. My friends are not sick. We are staying home to help people stay healthy.

This doesn't usually happen. The grown-ups are being extra careful.

I wish I could go to school today, but I will help us stay healthy and play at home. I can sing the songs I sing at school!

My grown-ups at home like when I give them hugs too. I can hold their hand and we can read books and have snacks together.

When school opens again, I will be so happy to see my teachers and friends. I will tell them about all the things I did when I was home!

